Good News, and Dreams
1,650,000 Miles a Minute
If He Returned
John D.'s $10,000,000

By Arthur Brisbane
LAUD & trotted a mile in a little over two minutes, and William H. Vanderbilt, who drove, was proud. An Englishman recently drove his automobile at the rate of 245 miles an hour, and flying machines have gone about 500 miles an hour. All that is amazing, but think of Mr. Wilson's "dreaming" state, that he traveled 1,650,000 miles in a minute, stars distant from us 120,000,000 light years, which means the distance that light could travel in 120,000,000 years, going 186,000 miles a second.

These swiftly moving stars and nebulae are far bigger than our sun, which is a million times bigger than our earth. Whoever believes that a universe of that size and speed has been managed by chance, without direction, for thousands of millions of years, could believe anything.

Miss Christabel Fankhurst, daughter of the courageous British suffragette, Emmeline Fankhurst, says she would like to see the second coming of Christ. It will not mean the world's end, but there will be no doubt about it. He will not come "in poverty, weakness and humility, but in all His majesty, with demonstrations of Divine power more miraculous than any of the miracles of modern science."

First, it occurs to you that anything more miraculous than modern science would be very miraculous.

Second, you feel quite sure that if Christ came to earth today, preaching as He preached 1900 years ago, immigration authorities of the United States would keep Him out and advise Him to go to Russia. He told the rich men to divide his wealth among those that had nothing.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is building in the heart of Manhattan Island, which is the heart of Greater New York, a group of magnificent buildings, to house a great radio theater, broadcasting station, office, shops, perhaps a new Metropolitan Grand Opera House.

Mr. Rockefeller's agents have just ordered ten million dollars worth of steel for his buildings, 125,000 tons of it. "Big Steel" will supply it.

The Rockefeller enterprise, to be finished in three years, will employ eight to ten thousand men at good wages.

It's a good thing to have many dollars, even a billion or more, assembled in one collection. That makes big things possible, just as a collection of many drops of water at Niagara creates power.

Fayrolls are up throughout the United States 47 per cent with employment increasing. That should cheer you. Reports come from 43,332 industrial and other establishments.

Dreams come true. Dreamers are to achievements of the future what old pioneers were to the development of our western lands.

Sixty years ago John Verne wrote his "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea" and his imaginary submarine, the Nautilus.

Today John Verne, grandson of the original John Verne, is in New York City. His son, Hubert Wilkins, dedicates the Nautilus of actual reality which Wilkins will go to the North Pole, under the ice.

Wednesday, Democrats with long memories celebrated the 84th anniversary of Grover Cleveland's birthday. Governor Roosevelt of New York praised his "rugged honesty."

The best thing about Cleveland was his belief in the United States and its ability to manage its own affairs. Nobody in England would have said to him: "Send somebody over here, and we shall find money what kind of ships and how many you may build."

Money goes to New York and stays. Borrowing in Wall Street was very easy yesterday. "Call money" had been 10 per cent for one per cent, and one-half per cent on the stock exchange. If you wanted money for 30 days you could borrow it for two per cent.

There is plenty of money, plenty of raw materials, plenty of idle labor. The difficulty is to bring the three together profitably.

It is gloomy to see men, abashed to prevent escape, at work on highways in various states. You feel that they are being on your ankles are on yours, and the weight on their backs on yours.

There is nothing gloomy about five shakedown men, with their guard on the outskirts of Atlanta when the convicts saw a house on fire.

The five men aroused the inmates, led them to safety, they worked in the thick smoke, saving household furniture until driven out by flames.

There is little difference in the hearts of men. The difference is in heredity, environment, opportunity.

MYSTERY IN WOMAN'S DEATH

Lowell, March 20 (AP)—The charred body of Mrs. Margaret Dewert, 52, was found in her home today at 10 Read st., under circumstances baffling to the police. There was no evidence of fire in the room except that a chair and the door were charred. But the woman's body was badly charred, with clothing and hair completely burned away. Search failed to reveal any possible source of fire. Neighbors said she had not been seen for many hours. Police summoned the medical examiner in an endeavor to ascertain the exact cause of death.

Wife and the Woman Who Spurned Him Dying in Lowell

By STAFF CORRESPONDENT
Lowell, March 20 (AP)—A man is dead and two women are dying in St. Joseph's Hospital here today, from wounds inflicted by the man after his affections were repulsed by the wife of a friend.

A spot man, John Andrews Papaleo, handsome and wealthy Lowell real estate dealer, said by police to have committed a blood-drenching crime. The dying woman was Mrs. Margaret Papaleo, wife of the dead man and Mrs. Marie Fourrier, mother of five children. Mrs. Fourrier was shot in the kitchen of her home at 120 Cabot st. Besides her when police broke into the house was a baby belonging to Mrs. Joseph Springuey, next-door neighbor, who called police after Mrs. Fourrier had been unable to gain admission.

After the first shooting Papaleo rushed from the Fourrier home to his own house at 99 Walker st. To pull away, and shot his wife through the head.

MYSTERIOUS CALL
While his wife was being taken to the hospital after a mysterious telephone report of the shooting, a police car searched the vicinity for her assailant.

Later Papaleo was seen by neighbors to return to his home. They called police, who found him on the floor of the kitchen, shot through the mouth upward to the skull, with a revolver lying beside him.

Three Big, Fat Cops Dismounted by Sergt. Kane

All of Kane's "ores" have gone tonight. In this instance, is Sergt. Edward Kane, general fact-finder of police activities, and the story dates way back.

To put briefly, three of Boston's mounted police were transferred yesterday to beat because they were getting too fat.

Police Commissioner Sullivan would put it that way but when reporters confronted him with data that showed a syllable of fat for mounted police, dating back to last December's horse show in Boston Garden, he laughingly said: "You fellows sure dig up the tops."

It developed that Sergt. Kane was told to observe the poundage of his men.

Regulation of the present of the force must look the part and keep that way or Kane's "ores" won't carry them, that's all.

BANK VICTIMS MAY GET LOANS

A conference of officials of the Industrial Bank & Trust Co. closed yesterday, was called for tonight, with prospects of reorganization in the making, one of the officials announced late today.

Bank Commissioner Arthur Guy, after a conference with Governor Ely, announced today he was trying to arrange with clearing house banks to make loans to depositors in the savings department of the closed Industrial Bank & Trust Co.

While sorrowful depositors, fearing loss of their savings, gathered about the doors of the bank and its branch, officers of the institution were seeking financial support so they could reorganize and open.

Commissioner Guy said: "If the officers presented a suitable plan for reorganization, reopening would probably be permitted."

He added, however, that as yet nobody had approached him with a plan, and if none is forthcoming, he will go ahead with liquidation. A final audit, preparatory to liquidation, was in progress today.

Asked how much the 6500 depositors might lose, Commissioner Guy remarked that savings depositors had never lost a penny in bank closings in this state except in the Cosmopolitan Trust case, where their losses were only eight cents on the dollar.

Guy made no promises with re-unfamiliar track, and show his speed.

NEED FATHER'S PLAN

The flight, which Balchen termed a "doubtful task," was undertaken in the face of adverse weather reports on the part of Dr. Louis Fox Friess, of New York, father of Varick Friess, motion picture producer, who, with his photographer, A. G. Penrod, of New York, is among the missing.

Mr. Friess asked Balchen to try to "see through" and Balchen said he would do his best.

With him went Stanley Enlow, New York pilot, who was at the controls when the ship took the air, and F. Marion Cooper, New York film producer, who organized the expedition at the request of Dr. Friess.

Mr. Gates, who was to have been a fourth member of the party, voluntarily relinquished his place when Balchen, shortly before the takeoff, declared the ship to be too heavy.

The twin-motor amphibian plane carried a load of 1800 pounds.

Dr. James H. Kimball, New York endocrinologist, warned Balchen of the danger of ice formation and advised against the flight, but the blond pilot—himself—declared he would try to get through.

WON'T GET THROUGH

Enlow said just before the start: "We'll fly the ship, but the water is too heavy in order to get through."

The plane carried no flares and was unequipped with radio and lack of night landing facilities north of New Brunswick indicated that the expedition would be forced to wait overnight at St. John.

The stern conditions north of there predicted by Dr. Kimball in last two days.

A calm gray sky with a ceiling of 3000 feet and a northeast wind of 15 miles per hour, however, delayed in starting last night, finally got under way.

Immediately before the start, when Dr. Kimball's weather report and advice were received, it appeared that the project would be abandoned, but Dr. Friess's plan caused Balchen to make a sudden decision and place his own life and that of his comrades in jeopardy.

After a daring, narrow attempt, the load even after gates, a friend of the missing Friess, gave up his place.

A crowd of nearly 600 persons was on hand at the airport when the start. Not a few had been waiting there since midnight.

Balchen ate a hearty meal at the airport, lunch at the hotel, wearing a mackinaw jacket, maki trousers, and a heavy hat, and his big feet were taken to Lena Summitt, Mo., for trial.

While Thompson talked to the judge, Rayak, said he and Mrs. Rayak prayed that the complainant might die. A moment later they were informed he had passed away from a heart attack.

EX-CIRQUE STAR IS FOUND DEAD

Manila, Feb. 20 (AP)—A

George J. Fox, 54, former partner of Lillian LaZelle, trapeze artist of world fame who fell to her death during a performance in Copenhagen, Denmark, several weeks ago, was found dead in his home here yesterday. He died of heart disease.

Fox, crippled by a fall during his living selling identification tags since he was dismissed from the Philadelphia General Hospital in 1920.

In 1920 he attracted wide interest by a trip across the continent in a wheel chair. His widow lives in Cleveland.

AIR CRASH LAID TO PROPELLER

Pine, Italy, March 20 (AP)—A variable propeller of a type which Col. Umberto Medadella, already favored, was blamed today for the disaster which yesterday took the lives of Medadella and two companions, Capt. Cecconi and Lieut. Damiano.

An inquest commission today found that the propeller had broken, cutting the fuselage in two when the plane was several thousand feet in the air. The main part of the plane was severed from its tail.

Neither the bodies nor the motor of the plane have been found.

Col. Medadella's cap and jacket were found today. He wore two parachutes. One of them was opened but its upper part had become tangled in the fuselage of the plane as it could not be used.

SUPPLIES ARE TAKEN

Stored in the plane were 15 pounds of chocolate, six jars of milled rice, a pound of sugar, four pounds of raisins and dates, four pounds of cheese, two pounds of sugar, 20 pounds of condensed corn, and a box of instant noodle.

Supplies for emergency in case of forced landing, in addition to medical supplies and concentrated food to be dropped by parachute to any survivors located, were carried on the trip.

SINCLAIR LEWIS SLAPPED TWICE IN THE FACE BY DREISER

COURAGEOUS PILOTS, STAUNCH SHIP IN DARING DASH TO NORTH

NOTED WRITERS IN CLASH AT DINNER

Nobel Prize Winner Slammed After Allusion to Author of "American Tragedy"

New York, March 20.—Sinclair Lewis and Theodore Dreiser, America's two great literary lions, exchanged verbal unpleasantnesses and Dreiser slapped Lewis twice in the face.

The incident, which occurred at a dinner given by a small group of the Horatio to Boris Pilnink, Russian communist writer, was revealed today by several who were present.

Among the guests were Heywood Brown, Irving S. Cobb, Rupert Hughes, Burton Rascoe and Laurence Stallars.

The clash between "Red" Lewis, author of "Main Street" and Nobel prize winner, and Dreiser, author of "An American Tragedy," culminated a feud extending over a period of years.

The hostilities at the dinner followed the refusal of Lewis to make a speech.

He said: "I feel disinclined to say any more about 3000 words from my wife's book, and before two great critics who publicly lamented my receiving the Nobel prize."

Three years ago Mrs. Lewis, formerly Dorothy Thompson, charged that Dreiser literally plagiarized "The Sea Islands" in his book "Dreiser Looks at Russia."

Afterwards, in an interview, Dreiser, as he was passing out, asked the Nobel prize winner: "And who are the other two?"

Lewis expressed some opinion. "His expression did not reflect his expression," Dreiser's literary ability which he highly respected. But personally—

Dreiser then slapped the face of Lewis with a resounding smack which went up and down the corridors of literary circles.

ONE SHORT WORD
Lewis smiled and repeated the expression—in fact it included only one short word.

Dreiser slapped Lewis' face for the second time.

Lewis calmly said: "I said in a speech this afternoon that you are the greatest living American writer and although I am going to continue to call you that, you are a —"

"TURN OTHER CHEEK."
"Well, what are you going to do about it?" said Dreiser.

"I'm going to turn the other cheek," said Lewis.

"Oh," said Dreiser, "I'll meet you physically any time or place you say."

As for the action went that was the end. And the two authors turned their backs on each other and went their separate homeward ways.

Dreiser, from his New York studio apartment, today relayed to International News Service that he was not considering carrying the incident any further.

GIANT AMPHIBIAN AIR TEST FLIGHT
The huge Sikorsky amphibian plane was put through its paces by Pilot Bert Balchen at the East Boston airport yesterday after being equipped with additional gas tanks for its flight to the Viking survivors at Horse Island. Balchen took the plane over the harbor to "get the feel of it." He expressed complete confidence in the craft.

Jobless Bill Is Hurried Along
Without a dissenting vote, Governor Rhy's $5,000,000 unemployment relief and highway construction bill was passed in the Senate today by the Senate in special session.

This state usually brings forth opposition to a measure, if there is any, but in the case of the present bill there was no debate and its passage was perfunctory. There was a murmur of "aye" voice and some against it.

The bill, which includes a provision for a one-cent increase in the gasoline tax for the next year, will come up again in the Senate probably on Monday.

When it comes up next, it is understood there will be some minor changes in the plan to make certain that aid promised the states and towns will be distributed. The committee on bills for third reading will make these changes.

KIN OF VERNE LAYS WILKINS' POLAR PLANS

New York, March 20 (INS)—"What man can imagine, man can do!"

Sir Hubert Wilkins, famed explorer, who is preparing to sail a submarine under the ice to the North Pole, has received that message from Jules Verne. The message was delivered by the celebrated author's grandson, Jean Jules Verne, who is in Paris on the Lafayette to christen the Wilkins ship of adventure.

Verne guided "20,000 leagues under the sea" through two books, "NOT TO MAKE JOURNEY" and "JOURNEY UNDER THE SEA."

Jean Verne, after repeating the message concerning human ability to vindicate human imagination, explained:

"My grandfather told me that and I transmit it to you. I was a boy of 15 when he died, but I have never forgotten it."

"I wish to express my admiration for you in attempting this feat. It almost surpasses anything that my grandfather dreamed of. I am sure that it is not only possible—but that you will succeed."

Asked if he would not like to join the Polar party, Mr. Verne, who is a small, slim, thoughtful man, brightened at the suggestion, then, after a pause, explained:

"But I am the advocate, the district attorney at home and my duty is to represent the full crew of the ship entitled."

NAUTICAL HELP UP
Capt. Wilkins smilingly assured him that there was no room for another man. They chatted for an hour at the Hotel St. Morris, where the visitor hurried after leaving the Lafayette, guided by Mrs. Susan Danneberg, wife of the commander of the submarine.

Sir Hubert had hoped that the United States Navy would send a ship to meet the Lafayette down the bay.

The adventure ship will be christened at Brooklyn navy yard Tuesday morning. Mr. Verne said that this was his first visit to America.

SIX SUSPENDED IN BROOKLINE SCHOOL RIOT

Six Brookline high school boys were ordered suspended today as an aftermath of the lunchroom battle over orange and green neckties at Patrick's Day.

Ernest R. Caverly, principal of the school, said the suspensions will range from two days to a week, with the longer "sentence" on the boy alleged to have started the lunchroom riot.

Principal Caverly said leaders of the student body and members of the faculty agreed the affair should not go unsanctioned, and they deemed it serious to be handled by the student court.

He offered to have the student court handle it, subject to his approval or disapproval of the court, but the conference, he said, voted that disciplinary measures be taken by the principal.

The names of the suspended boys were withheld.

Accused Broker Wins Continuance
The question of whether an attempt to recover money in a stock transaction has aspects of a civil suit was a continuance of one law for Frank L. Potter, Federal attorney, in municipal court today.

Potter was charged with recovery of $150,000 from Yermoyas G. Der Bab of 212 Broad st., Lynn, who had given Potter the money to buy 25 shares of stock and later cancelled the order.

WENDEL CLAIM ROMANCE TOLD
Providence, R. I., March 20.—New details of the romantic story told around John Gottlieb Wendel, Jr., the "Hermit of Fifth ave."

by claimants to the $250,000,000 Wendel fortune, were given the Boston Evening American today.

Carl, Theodore Wendel, 76, wealthy Wickford resident, who disappeared, later went to the office of his attorney, Carl William A. Moss, and turned over documents relating to the claim, which he has kept in a safety deposit box for more than a year.

MARRIAGE RECORD
One of those recovered papers to be a certification of the marriage of John Gottlieb Wendel, Jr., and Hannah Holt, a Vermont girl, at Dasi Greenwiche, N. Y., July 24, 1855.

"After working on this for nearly five years, with nothing to gain for myself, I am convinced," says Mr. Wendel, "that the marriage of John A. Wendel, Jr., Carl, Wendel, was."

"I started with a charge revealed by Mrs. Wendel's May 1914 ward. We searched her mother's trunk, dropped the records, and the marriage, one of the birth of the child Hertha, mother of Mrs. Wendel, was."

He further learned that young Wendel, after graduating from Columbia, was set up in business for his father in Albany. The two years he went to East Greenwich, N. Y., and married the girl he had met while still at school.

HERTHA BORN
"Hertha was born the next year at East Greenwich. Wendel's father demanded his return to the family, and at of about the time Hannah died he did so."

Wife Fred From Thirsty Husband
"Describing her husband as one who drank anything," Mrs. Emma Wendel of Peapack, was granted a divorce today in Middlesex court on the grounds of intoxication.

JOBLESS HIRED, HULTMAN HOME THEN FIRED

Seven men, hired a week ago on request of the Newton unemployment committee, were discharged today because of union difficulties.

Members of Waltham local of the Building Laborers' Union objected to their non-union status and withdrew, with the carpenters joining them in sympathy.

J. W. Duff, the contractor, said he discharged the seven and asked the union for five men to replace them. Meanwhile, he said, the carpenters confronted him with new demands and objections that he had refused only two of five that had walked out.

The laborers, who had since returned, then walked out in sympathy with the carpenters. Duff threatened injunction proceedings if the difficulties weren't straightened out.

HERE TO CHRISTEN POLAR SUBMARINE

M. Jean Jules Verne, French government official and grandson of the famous novelist, Jules Verne, was welcomed to New York by Mrs. Simon Danneberg, wife of the commander of Sir Hubert Wilkins' submarine which bears the name of the submarine in his grandfather's prophetic story. "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea." Verne will accompany the Wilkins expedition.

SEEK MILLIONS ON SUNKEN SHIP

Portland, Ore., March 20 (AP)—Lured by stories of a sunken fortune, Curtis Brothers, Portland and Seattle, house movers, seek to salvage the passenger steamer Talando, which went down in Stevens Passage, Alaska, August 15, 1901, with a load of 75 tons.

Frank Curtis was here today to seek figures on the ship's cargo. He said the chief prize sought was $2,000,000 in gold dust and to be locked in one of the ship's safe. Another safe, he said, was reported to hold $500,000 in currency. Operations were to begin about May 1.

The Curtis brothers have contracted with the owners and inventors of a diving bell for an equal division of all valuables recovered for use of the bell. The diving bell, Curtis said, would enable them to ascend to the 350-foot level.

BANDIT HUNT IN GIRL'S SLAYING

Chicago, March 20 (AP)—A coroner's jury, composed entirely of women, decided that "a person or persons unknown" slew Norma Loney, 27, whose body was found in Elk Grove forest preserve on March 17.

They heard stories of several witnesses, including Frank J. Murray, married sales engineer, who admitted he had been the office worker's clandestine sweetheart for 17 years and exonerated him.

Murray repeated his story that he had slugged him and kidnapped her. A search for the pair in the South, Murray's car was found abandoned in Jonesville, Va.

THE BETTER WAY TO PREVENT CONSTIPATION

You MUST look out for the health of your family. Often a faulty diet leads to constipation. Headaches, dizziness, loss of energy follow a constipated and children become irritable. Serious disease may develop.

You can prevent this by including roughage in the diet. A pleasant way to supply this roughage is with Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, a delicious, ready-to-eat cereal.

Two tablespoons daily, for each person, will prevent and relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In severe cases, use with each meal. Do this instead of giving them habit-forming pills and drugs.

ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron to enrich the blood and lend color to cheeks and lips. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

7 BILLIONS IN BUILDING PROJECTS

Following is the second of two articles based on an interview with Charles F. Abbott, prominent steel executive, on business conditions.

By JAMES L. McFARLANE, International News Corporation. Copyright, 1931, by International News Corporation.

New York, March 20.—A mighty construction program is swinging into action throughout the United States, presaging a sharp revival of business in all lines, Charles F. Abbott, executive director of the American Institute of Steel Construction, declared in an exclusive interview today.

"This is going to be a great building year," Mr. Abbott asserted. He "conservatively estimated" that public and private construction during 1931 would exceed the amazing total of $7,000,000,000, GREATEST IN HISTORY.

He pointed out the following examples:

In New York a $15,000,000 contract—the largest single order for structural steel in history—has just been let for the $100,000,000 Rockefeller Radio City. It will call for 125,000 tons of steel and will provide work for 8000 to 10,000 men.

Chicago is about to award a contract for 50,000 tons of steel for a subway system and for 23,000 tons for a new postoffice.

30,000 TONS FOR BOSTON. Boston postoffice award, to be made shortly, will specify 30,000 tons of steel.

Cincinnati Union Station, recently awarded, was for 24,000 tons.

New Jersey State Highway Commission is about to let a 22,000-ton contract for bridge construction.

The Nevada Hoover dam contract, a $45,000,000 project, has just been awarded.

San Francisco's Golden Gate bridge project is getting under way; New Orleans is pushing $20,000,000 worth of construction; Cincinnati is $45,000,000 of building, and other cities—from coast to coast—are following suit.

DEPOSITORS HOPE TO REORGANIZE CLOSED BANK

ward either to savings or commercial deposits, nor would he discuss how long the depositors would have to wait for definite knowledge of their situation.

$150,000 NEEDED
The bank, which has its main building at Washington st. and Massachusetts ave., South End, and its branch in Colman st., Dorchester, was closed late yesterday by the commissioner because the capital was "impaired, if not entirely wiped out."

A vice-president of the bank, who refused to let his name be used, said today $150,000 only was needed to relieve the institution from its difficulties. Had loans coupled with the depression, are blamed.

Groups of men and women, some of them wearing gathered about the doors of the two buildings today.

Their anguish was heightened by lack of information and all seemed to fear the worst, refusing to put much reliance in reports to the contrary.

"Will we get our money back?" "Then will we know?" most of them asked before going away. It was an orderly crowd.

Hardest hit in the closing are many savings depositors, most of whom are people of small means, who had all their money in the institution.

Savings deposits total approximately $1,500,000, while the assets of small business concerns, larger organizations and the city of Boston aggregate about $800,000 more. The city's deposit is $115,000.

DEPOSITORS GATHER
Early this morning men and women, alone or in groups of two or three, began arriving outside the doors of the main building on Washington st. under the shadow of the Northampton at elevated station.

They stepped up to read the bank commissioner's notice, most of them prepared for its ominous word, but some evidently surprised, not having heard of the closing.

They stood about talking with other depositors, asking how much the others "lost," telling of their own savings now up in jeopardy and perhaps in danger.

NOBLE SPENDS MOST OF TIME READING

Lawrence, March 20—Today a blonde youth strolled into the guardroom of the Essex County Jail here, slipped into a barber chair with the air of a man-about-town, and said, with a flourish:

"A shave, please, barbers—just once more."

As the barber, another prisoner, scraped the neatly shaved head from his cheeks, the boy complimented him on the appointments of the shop and expressed ironical approval of the service.

Russell Noble, in better spirits than at any time since his confinement in the county jail, was "downing" for the benefit of his fellow prisoners, sent to the guardroom this morning for the weekly cleaning.

GREAT LIFE, HE SAYS
Late, standing under the shower, Russell said:

"This is a great life—not nearly so bad as it's pictured as being."

Following the visit to the showers and the ministrations of the prison barber, young Noble was returned to his cell, where he resumed his omnivorous reading, which has never slackened since he was arrested for the hammer slaying of Mrs. Clara C. Ellis, wealthy Haverhill widow.

According to George Puntling, jail keeper, the boy is the firm prisoner under his regime to take the facilities of the small jail library.

To hold his tears but failed, as he read the notice and left without a word.

Among the vice-presidents of the bank were City Councilor Robert Gardner Wilson, Jr., of Dorchester and John J. Curley, former city treasurer and brother of the mayor.

Officials of the bank are confident that the situation will be adjusted favorably to all, whether commercial business. The securities he said were marketable and not bad.

City Treasurer Dolan stated he was going to file claim with the State bank commissioner for $115,000 which the city had on deposit in the closed bank. Mayor Curley had nothing to say and referred all questions to Dolan. There were no State funds in the bank.

Notes and Gossip About People You Know charge in charge of the projects figure there will be at least one worker for each insect.

HOSTILE AMENDMENTS FAIL
The House in finally accepting the compromise bill for an advanced highway program, took great delight in voting down hostile amendments. Rep. Alfred W. Loomis of Iowa tried to get a standing vote instead of a voice vote on his amendment. But the members would not be cheated of their fun. They refused the quorum standing vote almost unanimously and when the question was put on the amendment their "No" shook the rafters of the chamber.

RICHMAN BROTHERS

FROM FACTORY TO YOU — WITHOUT A MIDDLEMAN'S PROFIT

Another New England Institution NOW OPEN

Just in Time for Your New Spring Clothes

Richman Brothers' handsome, modern, centrally located Boston establishment . . . occupying the entire eight story building at the corner of Washington and Bedford Streets . . . is now open.

TODAY, and for many years to come, New Englanders can buy their own choicest woollens in Richman Bros. fine men's clothes . . . direct from the world's largest tailoring plant . . . without paying middlemen's profits. Now is New England's opportunity to see the clothes that have made Richman Brothers the sensation of the clothing world . . . the most talked of, most celebrated, most imitated, clothing manufacturing organization in America.

See what buying resources of over 4,000,000 yards of fine woollens (over 2,272 miles) a year can accomplish . . . what a manufacturing organization of 3,800 stock owning workers can do for quality . . . how elimination of waste and middlemen's profits increase value.

Our opening comes at a most appropriate time for you . . . just as you are about to buy your new Spring Clothes . . . just when we are offering the greatest values we've tailored in 78 years.

SEALER SINKS
IN STORM

St. John's, N. F., March 20 (11N8).—Only a few miles from the spot where the sealing ship Viking exploded with a loss of 28 lives while on a motion picture expedition, another sealing vessel foundered today. All of the crew were rescued. The ship was the auxiliary sealing schooner the William. She was abandoned by her crew 15 miles southeast of Horse Island in a gale and snowstorm.

The crew was rescued by the S. S. Eagle.

The Eagle is one of the New England sealing ships searching for survivors of the Viking disaster.

5 ACCUSED OF HIDING ASSETS

Pleading not guilty to an indictment charging concealment of assets in bankruptcy, five men were held each in $1500 by Judge James A. Lowell in federal court today.

The men are Samuel Bernfield and Helms Weisinger of Worcester; Max Weisinger of New York; Abe W. Berkovitz of Newark, N. J.; and Harry Sherman of Bridgeport, Ct.

The date of the alleged offense was given as December 10, the complainant being the International Footwear Co., Inc. The estate consisted of $15,000 in slippers and money.

Woman's Dream of Upspitting Auto
Comes True

Never, Pa., March 20 (AP).—"I had a dream last night," said Mrs. Eunice Toby, a juror, to the three other occupants of the automobile carrying them to court.

"It seems I was riding in a car and it turned over."

A few minutes later, the machine skidded off the road and flipped on its side, dumping County Treasurer G. R. McQuinn, County Recorder W. G. Jones, Jerry Harshman, a newspaper man, and Mrs. Toby.

But Mrs. Toby's dream didn't go far enough. Just then another car appeared, overturned nearby and caught fire.

LIVING COSTS
DROP MORE

Washington, March 20.—The cost of living continues to come down and has reached a point where the purchasing power of the 1928 dollar was $1.325 in February, the Bureau of Labor Statistics announced today.

Wholesale prices dropped two per cent in February from the January level, while the retail cost of food decreased about four and one-third per cent, and 17 per cent since February a year ago.

Today, in the great market centers of the United States, prices will show signs of improvement for the first time in months.

3 DEAD, 12 HURT
IN BUS CRASH

Washington, March 20 (AP).—Three persons were killed and 12 injured in a collision early today of a bus and a truck on the Washington-Richmond highway near Fort Humphreys, Va.

The accident occurred on a narrow bridge. The bus was bound for Norfolk, and the truck, loaded with eggs, was en route to New York.

No Civil Service

About People You Know
in Boston's Stores

By FRANCES L. BAIRD

CAT RAISES HUBBUB

Customers were treated to an impromptu comedy act today when a cat, several canaries and the person of the Ladies Jewelry Co. went into action as instant after the front door of the store was opened wide to permit an aged man, leaning on a cane, to leave the store.

John Marquhy was holding the door open for the old gentleman when a black and white streak chased past. A flock of canaries in little boxes recognized the intruder first and the hubbub commenced. It quickly gained volume when Gus Gerson, in charge of the store, and Joseph Lapp, manager of the store, made a dive for the cat, mixed and started on a marathon which led under and over counters, tables and chairs, and into the collar of the establishment.

Frank Titch and Charles Murphy joined the chase. The cat finally was captured.

TEA AT JORDAN'S

College girls are being entertained at a tea and style show beginning at 4 o'clock this afternoon at Jordan Marsh Co. Miss Katharine Casey, New York stylist, is lecturing on the new fashions and Miss Anne M. Greeley is hostess at the tea tables. The levy of girls from the store who are pouring over: Miss Beaumont Murgar, Miss Margaret Lenigan, Miss Gretchen Claflin, Miss Catherine Grant, Miss Ruth Purdy, Miss Audie Hunt, Miss Wills Wells and Miss Alice Kelly.

NEW RADIO SHOP OPENS

Hundreds of admirers crowded the street floor of Jordan's today this morning for a glimpse of Hiram Heidt and his famous California orchestra at the opening of the new radio section. Heidt makes a second personal appearance with his orchestra and vocal selections at 2:30 today, while off stage at the Metropolitan Theater, where he is appearing this week.

H. F. Twomey, sales promotion manager, is in charge of the radio opening ceremonies, assisted by Robert Bond, buyer for the department.

STYLE SHOW AT WHITE'S

A style show is being staged at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the lecture studio of R. H. White Co., second floor, with Miss Lillian Beckett, store stylist, in charge. The girls who are modelling apparel for all occasions include: Miss Mary Cohen, Miss Marie Husted, Miss Morris, Miss Dana Tolman, Miss Rita Wick, Miss Helen Tolman and Miss Barbara Donney.

RICHMOND RETURNS

Bert Richmond has returned from a trip south and is orienting himself in new surroundings. He is staff assistant to President Benjamin F. Raphael at R. H. White Co. He was formerly connected with Glibert Co.

NASH HAS NEW PLACE

Charles K. Nash, formerly with the Coward Shoe Co., today joined the sales staff of Jones, Peterson, Newhall Co. Mr. Nash has long been identified with promoting corrective shoes and will serve in this capacity in his new position.

EMPLOYEES ENTERTAINED

Three hundred members of the P. C. A. Women's Club attended a dinner in the clubrooms and were entertained in Filene's Clothing Institute auditorium by "Polly and Her Pals" last evening. Polly was formerly employed in the cleaning department of the store and has since gained fame as a professional entertainer. Miss Marion Adamson, vice-president of the Women's Club, presided at the meeting in the absence of Miss Ruth Moulton, president.

TICKETS ON SALE

Miss Mahle Weisman and her staff in Filene's service department are in charge of the sale of tickets for the concert stage debut of Miss Irene Gregoire, soprano, at Steinert Hall next Thursday evening, March 25. Great interest is being shown by the store personnel and many others in this first concert appearance of the "girl with the golden voice," employed in the alteration department.

SMITH VACATIONING

Nelson H. Smith, vice-president of Smith, Patterson Co., and Mrs. Smith are spending the week-end at their estate at Randolph, N. H.

PLANE WRECK LED TO BARING AKRON 'PLOT'

Akron, O., March 20.—Paul F. Kasey, accused of an attempt to wreck the world's largest dirigible now building here for the United States Navy, pleaded not guilty when arraigned today on a charge of criminal syndicalism.

He asked no bond and none was set. He will be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow.

C. F. Hardest, general manager of the Great Lakes Aircraft Corp., at Cleveland, said today the crash of a Navy bombing plane at San Diego, Sept. 28, 1930, started the investigation that was climaxed with the arrest of Kasey. One of the pilots of the plane was killed.

WINGS WEAKENED

Investigation, Hardest said, showed some one had weakened the wings so they would collapse. Investigators of the San Diego tragedy followed the trail back to the factory where Kasey had been employed as a mechanic. He later went to work on the Akron dirigible and while the investigation continued, the alleged plot to wreck the big craft was discovered.

Kasey, trapped by department of justice agents, confessed, they said, that he meant to see that the dirigible never took to the air.

CALLED A COMMUNIST

William J. McDermott, Assistant United States District Attorney, said Kasey planned to weaken the top of the dirigible metal skeleton by cutting rivets, and had planned to get into the control room before the launching.

Kasey, described as a communist and as a war-time captain in the Austro-Hungarian Navy, denied later to reporters that he ever was in the Austro-Hungarian Navy and said the plot charged against him was a frameup.

Censors Blame to Rest With Theaters

New York, March 20 (INB)—

Theaters need a dose of common sense and if stage censorship is brought about by legislation it will be their fault and not the fault of the public. John R. Sumner, secretary of the society for the suppression of vice, declared today.

Sumner last night took part in a debate with Alfred Harding, of the League of New York theaters, on the question of whether a play jury should be established to play suspected of obscenity. Don't say, "It can't be done," we've tried it. West Ad.

Despite its PRICELESS IMPROVEMENT

Bond Bread comes to you at no extra price

BOND BREAD now brings to you and your children the priceless benefit of sunshine vitamin-D.

That fact naturally suggests the question: "How much extra will this improved bread cost me?" The answer is: "Not a penny!" The price is unchanged, the flavor is unchanged... it is identically the same bread except for its greater healthfulness.

If you bathed naked in the mid-day sun, any kind of bread might do. But as it is, you probably get too little of vitamin-D.

Good health, sound teeth depend on plenty of this vital food-element.

What a boon to your children! By eating two slices of Bond Bread each meal, they can now get the additional vitamin-D they need... and yet, 200 slices a meal would not give them too much.

The TRUTH of this is guaranteed below.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to certify that the incorporation of Vitamin D in the products of General Baking Company by the Steenbeck Process and under control of THE PAEDIATRIC RESEARCH FOUNDATION OF TORONTO is fully authorized by the undersigned under Letters Patent of the United States, No. 1,680,818 to Steenbeck and owned by Wisconsin Alumni Research Foundation.

The same Home-like flavor

Thousands upon thousands of Boston women have been buying Bond Bread every day for a long time past. They have not done this by accident. They have passed up larger-looking, softer-feeling loaves in favor of Bond.

They wanted good bread... bread of utmost substance, of peerless flavor. They got it and knew it.

And now, with full knowledge that Bond Bread is rich in sunshine vitamin-D, they have realized that Bond Bread is as delicious as ever... that its flavor is absolutely unchanged.

There are now four points in which Bond Bread stands first:

1. GUARANTEED PURITY: Ingredients guaranteed by Bond printed on each wrapper. From this Bond, the loaf gets its name.
2. THRU-AND-THRU BAKING: More digestible because better baked.
3. FLAVOR-PEAK PROCESS: Rising stopped at proper point to insure utmost deliciousness. Otherwise, same weight could make a lot larger loaf.
4. SUNSHINE HEALTH-SOURCE: No other bread does or can offer this startling new virtue as guaranteed by the documentary evidence herewith.

Paediatric Research Foundation OF TORONTO 67 COLLEGE ST. TORONTO, CANADA

To Whom It May Concern:

We have bestowed upon the General Baking Company the exclusive right to make available to the American public through Bond Bread and other bread, that vital food element known as the "sunshine" vitamin, or vitamin "D".

We assume the responsibility continuously to analyze the product to insure and guarantee that all such loaves made shall supply said vital food element to the degree that our research has proved to be adequate and efficacious.

Since ours is a non-profit institution, our paramount interest is public service

MAYOR FAVORS ALL LINES

In the interest of competition for the Port of Boston, Mayor Curley is in favor of any and all L. A. lines coming into this city.

The attitude of the mayor was made known today in the Legislative Committee on Transportation.

Corporation General Samuel Silverman said the reason so many shippers from this section prefer New York is because of favorable and gratifying there such as free car lighterage.

He said the reason the Pennsylvania Railroad reached out for control of the New Haven was to offset the control by the New York Central of the Boston & Albany line.

Neither of these two great systems are interested in trying to build up the Port of Boston, he charged.

BYRD SOUVENIRS DESTROYED

Souvenirs of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition, the most cherished possessions of Edward E. Gonsdale who accompanied it as a dog driver, were destroyed by fire in his apartment early today.

The souvenirs, including two dog sleds, nine sets of harness, two pairs of skis, a pair of goggles, and a tent were stored in a barn which was consumed by a fire of undetermined cause. The loss was $300.

The lives of 14 sled dogs which Gonsdale brought home with him from the Antarctic, were saved when he transferred them from the barn to another shelter the night before.

Senate Rejects Education Bill

Without debate and on a voice vote the Senate today rejected the bill which passed the House, authorizing the State Department of Education to offer correspondence courses, free of charge, to inmates of certain institutions.

The Senate Ways and Means Committee had reported that the bill ought not to pass.

Hit-and-Run Driver Knocks Down Boy, 3

Little James Blanchard, three, of 725 Parker st., Roxbury, narrowly escaped death today near his home beneath the wheels of a car operated by a hit-and-run driver.

The boy was crossing Tremont st. at Parker st. when struck by the motor car. He was lucky in receiving only a glancing blow that inflicted abrasions on his right knee, but the driver continued on.

A Reporter's Story of a Famous Maine Murder Case

(Who Worked on the Case as a Reporter)

"That Portland murder sure has ramifications," said the assistant city editor.

"Yep, about everything but the most interesting angle—a woman!" replied the city editor. "The French wise crack, 'Cherchez la femme,' doesn't go here."

"You never can tell," said the assistant. "Don't forget this autumn tragedy in a peaceful New England community has strings reaching to Iowa, California, Texas and Mexico City. That is, perhaps, not actually, but perhaps, the sweep of a string. There usually is one, no matter how faint and distant."

"Has Turner, the slaver, made any more admissions?"

"No, our man phoned early today and said he had enough to show there was a feud over money that would have induced Turner to sell his soul to the devil. He'll be in the hands of the law by the time he's taken to the gallows at the end of the week."

The lawyer, he claims, unwilling to charge a large sum of money for his services, has told everything at the proper time. Meanwhile he's ready to take any bribe offered him, and he has just fired off a bullet in his pistol into

"Furbush says he had a hard time digging up Turner's past from so great a distance, but he has been able to dig up a readable chronology."

Turner is a queer mental make-up, says Furbush.

SUSPEND DEBTS SAYS LEWIS, TO AID BUSINESS

Washington, March 20 (AP)—Suspension of payments on international war debts was proposed today by Senator Lewis, Democrat, Illinois, as a cure for business conditions.

Lewis said he did not agree that reducing the tariff, dissolving combinations of corporations, and investigating power monopolies would give relief.

"I propose," he said, "that America suspend the debts due to the United States as war payments, and provide that these debts be transferred to the governments that did not fight the war and exempt from immediate payment the governments who did fight and suffer the war."

"Then these nations could use the money of the present generation to buy from America the needed supplies to revive their general business."

"I propose the United States should say to these nations—Belgium, France and Italy—that they give the same suspension to Germany on her debt that we give them."

"This is the remedy I see that would immediately awaken trade and revive prosperity in America."

Run Cargo on Way Here Heavily Guarded

New York, March 20 (AP)—The escort of police and coast guard patrol boats in the city of Victoria left Honolulu in the morning for Boston, Portland, and the island of St. Pierre and Miquelon, off the coast of Canada, with a cargo of lumber which reports 30,000 cases of lumber.

The lumber is consigned to St. Pierre and Miquelon and 10 guards are to make sure it gets there.

SIX CURES ARE LAID TO SAINT JOSEPH

Quebec, March 20 (INR)—Six miraculous cures have been attributed to St. Joseph, the patron saint of Canada since the first of the year, according to information made public today.

Celebrations in honor of St. Joseph were held yesterday at St. Joseph's Oratory, a famous shrine here.

Miss Yvonne Despres, unable to walk for ten years, and who underwent eight operations in a hospital, claims to have been miraculously cured. Lucien Pelquin, 12, who said he had undergone a serious operation also said he had been cured by Saint Joseph.

The names of the four other people reported cured and details of their cures were not made public.

Major Industries Show Labor Gains

Washington, March 20 (INR)—Based on returns from 75 industries employing approximately 1,250,000 persons, the Bureau of Labor Statistics today announced that during February the accession rate of labor was greater than the total separation rate for all manufacturing and for each of eight major industries, except slaughtering and meat packing, which has a higher separation rate than accession rate.

U. S. Revenue Shows $200,000,000 Drop

Washington, March 20 (INR)—Treasury Department officials figured today that the Government will collect about $75,000,000 in income taxes and other receipts during March, a $75,000,000 drop from their previous estimate of $200,000,000 during March, 1930, totalled $550,000,000.

Receipts Wednesday were $88,601,900 against $214,534,800 on the same day last year.

"STOP THAT MUSIC!"

I SAID —

I can't dunk to waltz time!"

Music is a nuisance when there's serious dunking going forward. In spite of yourself, you try to beat time, and that's a mistake when you're dunking—and never mind asking why.

Besides, when you're dunking a blissful handful of Royal Lunch Biscuit, you want your mind on your work. Dunketeers shouldn't be distracted by a lot of envious piccolo players and such.

So let's have blessed silence when we dunk—the true ecstatic silence of the confirmed Dunketeer hard at it.

Rabid Prisoners' New Outbreak Quelled as Troops Stand Ready to Shoot Them Down

JACK GAGNON, PUGILIST, IS DIVORCED

Jack Gagnon, the heavyweight pugilist, practiced books and wrote on his wife while she and her two children were confined in Middlesex Probate Court today.

The wife, Mrs. Winona Maud Gagnon of Scarsville was granted a divorce on the ground of cruelty. Gagnon, whose real name is William J. did not come to court this time. His attorney stated that Jack frequently came home under the influence of liquor, and when she told him to take hit her on the chin. Once the wife upset the table and threw a plate at her husband's head. She returned from a visit to her parents last September, he was missing, and had not Michael O'Keefe, 23, of Eden St., was arrested last night, but for the grand jury in Chelsea came today on a charge of armed robbery of the Chelsea branch of the Post Office on Sunday night where $304 was stolen. He waived a hearing and pleaded guilty.

The twin hunchbacks of two 37-year-old girls and their husbands will be said to have been in a friendly feud with the same case, if police find these two loving couples, now believed to be in Alameda.

O'Keefe was arrested on an apartment on Ward st., Lynn, furnished as a "love nest" by the couple.

The youths sought by the New York City police in warrants obtained in Chelsea Court are Joseph Covello, 26, of Chicago, and Joseph Covello, 26, of Chicago, 23, of Boston.

S. P. C. A. CHIEF
SUED AS CRUEL

A general round of denials was made today in Middlesex Probate Court at the second day of the hearing on cross suits of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Vickers for divorce.

Vickers, chief prosecuting officer of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, has been charged with "running around with other women." In his petition he said his wife was more interested in ball games and lodge meetings than he was.

Mrs. Vickers today denied that her husband ever had to take their son from his bed for a session in the morning on a condition of household chastity.

She testified to yesterday, and she said she only attended four ball games last year.

She also testified to overtures toward Mrs. Hazel Dixon, of Watertown, cousin of his wife's.

The case was taken under advisement.

By MR. BOSTON
I have known Dick Dunn of the Boston Garden to have my seat in the press row dated off as "I'm going to be as close to the ring as possible when Bat Battallino, world's featherweight champion, and Andy Callahan, New England lightweight champion, start trading blows tonight.

Neither of the rival warriors would receive a rating of more than 60 per cent in the press row dated off as "I'm going to be as close to the ring as possible when Bat Battallino, world's featherweight champion, and Andy Callahan, New England lightweight champion, start trading blows tonight.

Bring Em Back Alive

By FRANK BUCK with
EDWARD ANTHONY

Then I recall complaining to the boys that the storm was getting worse. It was getting darker. The sun was wrong. The storm was letting up. Perhaps I mistook the mud that splashed over me as I fell to the floor of the pit, too weak to stand up, for extra heavy rain drops.

All I had to do to my feet and the boys—no one feared entering the pit now—and with the aid of black and tackle our freight was hauled out of the hole.

IN MINNEAPOLIS 2005.
Eight coolies were needed to get our capture back through the mine that was once a dry jungle trail to the highway leading to Johore Bahru. More than once they almost dropped their load, which they bore on carrying poles as they shuffled around in the three miles of sticky mud and the asphalt road which now carries the traffic of the United States.

It was all very funny. I had seen the rain and wind of the storm. There was loaded the box onto the waiting rig, which followed the tiger's car.

TRADE WOULD HELP BOTH TEAMS

By JOE CASHMAN
St. Petersburg, Fla., March 20

Trade rumors are all clanking down here. It seems that the Braves would like a pitcher and the Cincinnati Reds want an outfielder and Larry Benton of Ray Kolp has been offered for Lance Richbourg.

With six good outfielders, the Tribe could afford to let one go to strengthen the mound staff, and the Reds while they need hitters, need outfielders more, so if the proposed deal goes through, both clubs should profit.

Benton was a failure with the Reds last season and not much better the year previous with the Giants. But he was one of the greatest hitters in the league for several campaigns before that with the Braves and might find himself a regular this season.

Kolp shows signs of greatness occasionally and a change of scenery might make him a world beater. Richbourg has the skills and the tribal fight since since joining the club but since he isn't counted for several campaigns before that with the Braves and might find himself a regular this season.

Do You Have Trouble With Short Vests?

Tailor-made suits ensure freedom from the gaping space which SHOWS YOUR SHIRT between the top of your trousers and up where the vest begins. If you're the average man you've had this experience with vests on ready-made suits.

More than that... a suit that is Wilson tailor-made ensures proper shaping at the shoulders and collar... a coat that is long enough... sleeves the right length... pockets where they belong... In other words... a suit that is YOURS alone in every detail of making... color... and pattern... yet... it costs no more than an ordinary ready-made suit.

How "Scrappy" Lambert Keeps Coughs from Going On The Air

The famous tenor crooner, "Scrappy" Lambert says, "It's risky to start a program on the air without a safe, quick cough remedy close at hand—one that can relieve a cough and clear up every trace of hoarseness."
That's why he uses Pertussin. It is quick and sure. Broadcasting stations use it. It is entirely free from narcotics and injurious drugs—it is safe even for children. Vincent Club Show Big Success

Society Girls Win Ovation in "Vincent Voodoos" at Arlington Premiere

THE 1931 VINCENT CLUB SHOW, "Vincent Voodoos" has sent another thundering success echoing down in the history of this popular organization of society girls. The curtain rose on the dot of 8:30 to the baton of Ruby Newman and his splendid orchestra. The house was well sold out and many mothers of this year's debutantes were noted in the crowd, as well as faces seen year after year at these affairs. Miss Eleanor Sears, for many years leader in the famous drill, was content to sit in the audience and cheer one of the most spectacular leinups ever seen on the Vincent Club stage.

ROMAN SOLDIERS, REPRESENTED in red and silver with plumed helmets, marched, pivoted, formed tableaux and made a gorgeous medieval picture. The soloists in this number were Rosemond Rust and Barbara Young. Captains of the guard were Miss Mary, Mrs. Thomas Proctor, St. Isabella Grandin and Elizabeth Sawyer, soloists—Peggy Bent, Helen Mosley, Mary Bird, Jane Garfield, Susan Moore, Constance Greighton, Peggy Little, Barbara Warner, Elizabeth Harding, Anne Houghton, Rosemond Rust, Kitty Burrage, Anna Warren, Evelyn Houghton, Barbara Young, Katherine Rust, Elizabeth Thompson, Lena Levermore, Katherine McPiercy and Elizabeth Hovey.

ANOTHER BRIGHT SPOT in the show is the fox trot taping of Ruby Bent and Nancy Whitman, who were quite professional and were called for an encore. The tennis dancing of the three Palfrey sisters, Sarah, Polly and Blanche, was another highlight in the show, being original and well and skillfully performed. Miss Edith E. Thayer, Jr. and Miss John Parker handled the comedy acts skilfully and deserved more applause than they received—both such in Boston.

Pony Ballet Scores Hit: Finale of Show

GORGEOUS PAGEANT was a sort of Folies with gorgeous settings and costumes. An effective picture was the Venetian Night scene and the pony ballet was good, quite Ziegfeldian. Anne Deane was a particularly sprightly number. The little playlet, "The Young King" was very well done. The finale, "The Young King" was very well done. The finale, "The Young King" was very well done.

IN THE LIGHTER SPOTS Peggy Read and Sally Wambold made a bit with their two songs, "Man of My Dreams" and "The Young King." The finale, "The Young King" was very well done. The finale, "The Young King" was very well done.

Y. W. C. A. Seniors Will Hold Services
The senior girl reserves of Metropolitan Boston will observe their annual Lenten Vesper service at the Boston Young Women's Christian Association Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. Miss Dorothy Ross will accompany the singing.

The service is to be held in the meditation chapel, 7th floor, in the activities building, 7th floor, in the activities building, 7th floor, in the activities building, 7th floor.

Lace Mode Has Present and Future

By ANN ARDEN

STITCH BIG fashions make such inconspicuous entrances into the mode sometimes. Lace wool here made its first appearance every one was more or less inclined to dub it a fad. Now look at it! For sports clothes, for general wear, even for afternoon and evening some of the smartest costumes are made of the same wool lace.

NOT ALL wool lace fashions are good fashions, however. Lace, any one fabric, wool here has a steepest quality in itself that produces elaborate, dreamlike, therefore, the greater simplicity even in the detail of a wool lace frock, the snifter that frock becomes.

THE HENRIKSON opened in Paris proved that the enthralling were seriously considering wool lace along with their other winter creations. When designed with a restraining hand and an eye for simplicity, there is no wool lace for which holds more poise than for wool than this worsted lace.

THE DINNER or evening gown pictured in white crepe Elsiebeth and very sheer wool lace. The form-fitting hip section, draped front, and low back drapery are of the crepe Elsiebeth as is the belt, caught with a large ring in Anne's hand. The color, making a vivid splash of color, there is a swelling flare to the skirt section of wool lace, achieved by the under stiffening of its lower edge. The whole of lace basis round corners, and elbow sleeves, bound in crepe.

Snappy Numbers Feature 'Vincent Voodoos'

By PAUL WHELAN

Society turned last night to the art of the fast-stepping modern relations—with results most happy.
There was a tang of spring in the air, and the Vincent Club Theater was now known as the Casino, but back of the worn footlights it was hatching, of summer time.

The Vincent Club in its annual offering, has a lot of being warm that was.
There is no hoodoo on the Voodoos of the Vincent—if the play is measured by the opening scene—the first of five performances.

A well-timed hour of the Vincent Club, and from then on the show was made to the benefit of the Vincent Memorial Hospital CAN—BANK SUNDAY.

You met Nana Whilman in the third scene of the first act—and you looked for her thereafter, even though you might have been, and you saw and watched for, also Sally Parker—such a voice in Hamburg, Inc!

Let you ask about Sally Wambold—she was there, and in capitals. And she did several scenes on "Walking My Baby Back Home."

"Voodoo" is really worth while even if you measure it by the fun of the thing, merely well, you'll be surprised.

The Chorus, by Dorothy Porter and Lilla Joy Draper, is a group of five, and the three are to Joe Ziegfeld or J. J. and Les Shubert—even in the heat of tense rehearsal.

In the "Hond Roul qui May y Pone," there was the touch of repetition. If you haven't been near Wear flowers on socks again, but be very particular where you place those flowers. The more you know about the snifter you own will be the more you will know about the wide flowing sleeves of a vest gown, and the more you will know about the snifter you own will be the more you will know about the wide flowing sleeves of a vest gown.

YES, you can wear lace but be wise in your choice of it. They must come with you to your gown not make it. And the more you know about the snifter you own will be the more you will know about the wide flowing sleeves of a vest gown.

ANN ARDEN will answer questions concerning clothes, social customs or fashions generally.
Address your questions to the Boston Evening American or the Boston Sunday Advertiser or to Station WLEX.

Millions in Art on Way Back to Persia
London, March 20 (AP)—A holy Grail valued at $2,000,000 is being returned to the holy places of the Near East. It is a relic of Persian art treasure which have been exhibited before 2,000 persons.

The treasure is carefully guarded and will be transported by a secret route to Persia, there by air and carried to the interior.

PALESTINE AT ITS BEST
It is Palestine at its best, even though the best is feminine. Wrong conclusions are arrived at in the Palestine, and then the Palestine is hatched, of spoken word. Where the silence overcomes up to 100 in the shade, the "Palm" makes the whole thing appear as if it were a scene from another part of the opera, when a stage band and a chorus girl share a waiting room bench. The following is neither direct nor close to the mark.

"Grandma, why do you say that?"
"Grandma? Why, I'm not even a mother."
"You're not a mother? Where have you been all your life?"
"Why, I've lived in Boston!"
Much of the popular music of the day is used in the 1931 production of the Vincent Club, but there is some that may or may not be original to me."

PALESTINE GIRLS DANCE
If you are tone-mimic, the Palestine girls are in the show in a large way. It is the art you are looking for, but the three are as the same that you will have difficulty, and why make it easier for you? The girls all carry rare. There was the touch of repetition. If you haven't been near boldly keeps creeping in! The high hat, among the high hat! And that of Nancy Whitman and Peggy Bent, who know their fox trot! Miss Batchelder, incidentally, wrote several numbers for the show.

One of these is "Throw Your Troubles Away." (You should take advice, especially on these grounds.) With her piano player, Peggy Read, and a good piano player, Miss Vambold makes merry with several numbers—and finally she stopped the show for encore.

A WORTHY CHARITY
Miss Read's piano had a bit of jousting, however, from the piano of Frank Dunn of Ruby Newman's orchestra, but it was all in good fun, even though Dunn won a punt.

As a matter of history, the Vincent Club was started in 1897, as the memory of Mrs. Vincent, through a gift of $1000 by Miss Caroline Ripley to her friend, long an actress in the old Boston Museum.

The girls of that day rallied around the cause and established the hospital fund that now makes possible the caring for scores of girls and women throughout the year.

It is a worthy charity, and a good show. You should take it in. Some that may or may not be original to me."

STOCKS FINISH DOWN IN BEST PRICES

New York, March 20.—After a drop in official call money to 1 per cent, the lowest rate in 14 years, bulls repulsed today's advance by bears on the New York Stock Exchange index. Moderate weakness and profit-taking was easily absorbed.

The list closed with a first loss, with several gains of 1 to 4 points, balanced by a few declines. The Federal Reserve Bank's day's action was high, after a slight loss from the top.

SHORTS ARE PINCHED

Stocks were unsettled for a time in the morning by a slight advance in which dividend rates are quoted. In the afternoon, however, by liquidation of some of the shorts.

Shares were pinched in a few instances in the late trading, and the list closed around the day's level.

Prices: Trading was at a slower tempo, however, and transfers aggregated only 2,700,000 shares.

Home and Webster and Westinghouse Electric stock advanced at the points, the former recording the greatest price, as shares were pinched.

Shares, which have recently been dragging the market down, were pinched, covering New York Central, Erie, and others.

Other shares moving up 2 or 3 points, including American Telephone and Telegraph, Western Union, and others.

Shares gaining a point or so included National Cash Register, American Express, and others.

Shares losing a point or so included National Cash Register, American Express, and others.
